Cheryl Barton Romance & Inspirational Novel Catalog

Cheryl Barton lives in Maryland and in her spare time she loves to read espionage, crime and romance novels, cook, watch Sci-fi movies, spend time with family and friends and Maryland steamed crabs. Cheryl is celebrating 31 years as a government employee and loves writing romance and inspirational novels when she's not working.

Cheryl is the author of over 40 romance and inspirational novels and is proud of 4 book compilation projects with several other incredible women called, "One Sister Away: Encouraging Words from One Sister to Another" – a series of books meant to encourage, empower and inspire other women. People often ask Cheryl which book is her favorite of all of those she's written. While she finds it hard to select one favorite, she still looks to her first novel, Bachelor Not for Sale, if she had to pick a favorite because it was her first novel and the one that inspired her to continue writing.

In 2020, Cheryl will be launching a motivational podcast called, "The SAMM Hour", talking about and interviewing women who are doing incredible things in the community to empower, encourage, uplift and inspire. Check her website at www.cherylbarton.net/podcast for more information.

Cheryl was a 2019 Finalist for the Emma Award given by Romance Slam Jam and a 2018 Finalist for the Literary Trailblazer of the Year award by the Indie Author Legacy Award. Cheryl is a member of the Romance Writers of America – National Chapter, the Maryland Romance Writers and the Contemporary Romance Writers groups.

I AM BECAUSE YOU READ AND I THANK YOU

I wouldn't be on this journey if it wasn't for readers who love romance and love my style! I enjoy everything about love, especially writing about it. I look forward to bringing you more goodness, sweetness and sexiness in the new year and I hope you'll continue to check them out.

Join for a new podcast, launching January 2020 to kick off the new year. "The SAMM Hour" will encourage, inspire and uplift. I hope you'll join in on the discussion.

Thank you for your support and stay tuned for much, much more in 2020!
